Training and Technical Assistance to Tribal Organizations

JANICE K. STRAND

Ms. Strand is a Professional Registered Parliamentarian and holds a B.S. from the University of Minnesota and an M. S. from Texas Tech University. As a college student at the University of Minnesota, she was active and served as an officer in several student organizations.

In her career, she founded and directed two different non-profit agencies. As she developed the Board of Directors for each agency, she helped prepare agendas that guided the Board to the use of proper parliamentary procedures.

She has taught middle and high school students and advised vocational youth groups to use basic parliamentary procedure.

Upon leaving full-time employment, Ms. Strand chose to study parliamentary procedure intensely, achieving the level of Professional Registered Parliamentarian through the National Association of Parliamentarians. She serves as president of her state and local parliamentary unit. She serves her professional organizations and two other organizations as parliamentarian. She regularly presents seminars for tribal entities (Councils, Boards and Committees), non-profit organizations and she presents workshops at state conferences.

She recently attended the National Training Conference of the National Association of Parliamentarians in Illinois.
