

NATIVE AMERICAN RESOURCES, LLC

Training and Technical Assistance to Tribal Organizations

PATRICIA S. IVES, ESQ.

Ms. Ives is a partner in the firm of Cuddy, Kennedy, Albetta & Ives, LLP. Her practice concentrates in the areas of telecommunications, employment and education law, public finance, administrative, and civil rights law and litigation.

Ms. Ives obtained her B.A. from Whittier College, California in 1979. She obtained her J.D. in 1983 from the University of Southern California, where she was a member of the Hale Moot Court Honors Program.

Ms. Ives served as law clerk of the Honorable William F. Riordan on the New Mexico Supreme Court from 1983 to 1985. From 1985 to 1987, she served as Assistant Attorney General, representing the Telecommunications Staff of the New Mexico State Corporation Commission. Prior to joining The Cuddy Firm, she served as Assistant Attorney General advising the New Mexico State Corporation Commission on all telecommunications matters.

Ms. Ives' professional associations include the State Bar of New Mexico and the New Mexico Defense Lawyers Association. She served as a member of the State Bar of New Mexico Task Force on Minority Involvement in the Profession. Her national professional associations include the American Bar Association, the Council of School Attorneys of the National School Boards Association, and the National Organization on Legal Problems in Education.

She is vice-chair of the Santa Fe Community Foundation and is chairman of the Foundation's Legal Committee. She is admitted to practice before the state courts of New Mexico, the United States District Court for the District of New Mexico, the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit, and the United States Supreme Court.